If some of you remember, the annual coastal cleanup scheduled for Saturday,

September 18, had to be canceled because of Hurricane Ivan.

Well, in Hancock County, the Chamber of Beautification Committee, felt the cleanup was very important and at its meeting on Tuesday, decided to sponsor a county-wide cleanup for Saturday, November 20.

It is hoped that all groups, individuals, etc., who signed up for the earlier cleanup will participate on Saturday, November 20.

We will be giving you more information on the special cleanup for Hancock County as the time nears.

Hood's crusade is the right thing to do

t's the same old story. Mississippi. The state's attorney general activist on behalf of country district attorney the people and critics begin charging that he's playing politics or running for higher office. That happened to Mike Moore. He had not long been AG in 1988 when he got himself into hot water with the Legislature by advocating revival of initiative and referendum.

Other Mooreled public issues followed, and journalistic jackals began tabbing him as a publicity hound. As the record shows, before he stepped down in 2004, Moore had slain a herd of political sacred cows and also got some amazing results--the Big Tobacco settlement perhaps the biggie. He proved an activist AG can make life better in

> with none of his predecessor's pizzazz and talent to sparkle in front of TV cameras, narrowly won the AG haps owing much to Moore's last minute help. Not much had been heard from Hood in the press and TV for more than six months after he took office > as he methodically did his job, maybe still living in awe of the man he succeeded.

However, while staying out of the limelight, Hood had let the major player across the street at the State Capitol know he didthe loop as the Barbour Administration prepared to 68,000 terminate Mississippians the in Medicaid PLAD (poverty level aged disability) category from the rolls with vague promises they would be covered by federal Medicare.

Early on Hood sent word to Gov. Haley Barbour that despite their different political party affiliations, it was essential that they keep office last year, per-lines of communication open and avoid any public squabble as Moore had with Republican Gov. Kirk Fordice.

, Meantime, Hood's special Asst. Attorney General stationed at the Division of Medicaid, was Gwen Combs who had been assigned to the agency for 13 years, dating back to the Fordice Administration.

While she never went public, Combs had resigned in May because she was unsuccessful in convincing Medicaid director Warren Jones that beneficiaries n't intend to be left out of being terminated July would need to be afforded minimum due process.

Importantly, she had not prepared or previously seen the termination letter mailed June 3 that is now at the center of a federal court dispute.

Hood in mid-June met with Dr. Jones and Barbour's staff attorneys and advised them that their assumption that mere notifications sent to the PLAD amounted to "presumptive appeal" was legally flawed.

Last week when U.S. District Judge Henry Wingate. temporarily enjoined Medicaid from making the cuts because of insufficient legal notices sent to beneficiaries, a Barbour spokesman had claimed that Hood's assistants were to blame for the foul-up.

That infuriated the normally mild-mannered Hood. He said if necessary he would prove in court that termination notification letters were not the work of Combs or the DA special assistant who replaced her. Incredibly, two letters

Who is God?

In a few weeks the and proud. supreme court will hear the time in a long while man place. Who is God?

For that matter, who are we to even think we could do such a thing the laws of man are the laws of God. Our country is great only because of God.

We acknowledge God in almost every building built by our forefathers through out the United States. Washington, our capital, has more buildings that acknowledge that there is a God. In the very building that the hearings will be held, behind the justice's benches, are the Ten and died so we may be free Commandments, big enough for every one to see and may I submit are alone. The very same building has over its entrance the law giver Moses and the Ten Commandments stands big

To my mind all these justices have now got a case on their hands. One like they never had before. They either must admit there is a God or not. Now for the first time, they will realize what the words they so freely say as they take office "so help me God," mean. Our country was built on belief of God when we sent our boys over there to fight wars, we sent a priest along with them each to his own beliefs. They fought for this great country to worship the God we believe in.

All I can say is that may God help the justices for they can do nothing alone.

Letters to the Editor

Bill Minor was off base

Editor:

The article, "Indian casi-no revenues elude state", by Bill Minor baffles me as to why we should be concerned about revenues from the Choctaw Indians. The state of Mississippi was not concerned about using state revenue to help the Choctaw out of horrendous poverty before the casino's. The livconditions were deplorable after their land was stolen from them. Historically the African Americans were told to "pull up their own bootstraps", I think the Chestaw Indian should say the same to the state of Mississippi. After all the Choctaws can trace their heritage of this land before Christ, way before others came by boat to take what was not theirs!

BSLLT presents 'Men of Stone'

The opener for Bay St. Louis Little Theatre's 2004 -2005 season will be "Men of Stone," an adult comedy by Seth Rozin, with performances October 15, 16, 22 and 23 at 8 p.m., and Sunday matinees, October 18 and 24

In this imaginary trip through time, the audience is transported back to 1513 AD, the Renaissance period. We join Michelangelo Buenarroti during his creation of Pope Julius II's tomb. Michelangelo, a.k.a. Mickey, is sculpting his masterpiece, Moses, In the midst of his chiseling passion something goes awry; the statue comes to life.

Moses begins to speak, not like the Moses from the Bible, but more like Mo, the local butcher who is modeling for Mickey. As if this isn't enough, Mickey's lover, the Countess Vittoria, and his benefactor, Pope Julius II are both pressuring him to complete the sculpture, for different reasons, of course. Come join the fun and see what happens when outside pressure and creation collide. Cast members are Larry Clark (Mickey), Lex Mauffrey (Pope Julius, II), Richard O'Briant (Moses), Roxanne McCabe (Countess Vittoria), and Chris Flynn (Mo). Michelle Kessling is Director;

Theresa Scardino, Assistant Director; Cheryl Grace, Manager; Chaix, Set Design, Russell Harrison, Glen Vanderbeek, Libba Tallant, Roxanne McCabe, Larry Clark, sets.

Pavolini-Ladner

Firefighters Pavolini and Brian Ladner have recently completed it 40-hour course in Fire Ground Leadership at the Mississippi Fire Academy. The course is designed to address the management needs of first-in engine company officers responsible for emergency response actions.

"The main focus of the course is to advance the ability of the initial officer in charge of the scene of a tire situation to safely manage the response actions of assigned personnel", said Chief Robert Gavagnie. The curriculum includes preparation for response, decision making, and tactical opera-

Each firefighter also earned four hours of credit to maintain their EMT certification. "These two men are senior firefighters and these courses are in their natural progression of training for their status," the Chief commented.

ANNABELLE ANDERSON VALETTE BRETZIUS MYRTIS BROUSSARD SISTER MARY DUPUY JONATHAN HOOPS ANITA GARCIA AUGUST RAUXET

ANNABELLE ANDERSON

Annabelle Anderson passed away Saturday, October 9, 2004 at her home in Diamondhead, Mississippi.

She is survived by her husband, retired Air Force Lt. Colonel Warren (Andy) Anderson; a daughter, Mary Anne. Bilowich of St. Francesville, LA, and a granddaughter, Kristina Maria Dicuru, of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Not to be outdone by her six brothers, all of whom voluntarily entered military service at the beginning of World War II, she enlisted in the Coast Guard. It was while serving honorably as a "SPAR", stationed at Palm Beach, Florida, that she met her future husband and soulmate of 60 years, then Captain Andy Anderson. Her death on Saturday, October 9 terminated the earthly relationship with her adoring husband, family and friends. But spiritually, in their hearts and minds. fond memories of this beautiful, vivacious and compassionate woman will continue to live.

In accordance with her wishes, burial with military honors will follow a ceremony for family and friends at Biloxi National Cemetery at 2:00 P.M. on Thursday, October 14, 2004.

Carole Ripley copes with the incurable, but hope survives

> BY BENNIE SHALLBETTER Staff Writer

ay St. Louis resident Carole Ripley, 63, isn't sure exactly how she contracted her disease, idiopathic pulmonary fibrosis. All she knows for sure is that the disease has forced an unwanted change in her life. A woman with a strong work ethic and an even stronger sense of community, Ripley now has many days when merely getting out of bed for more than a short time is an effort.

Work has stopped, but it is no vacation. She is no longer able to put in time at the restaurant she ran for years with partner Mary McLaurin. She no longer has the strength to continue working on community causes that have been dear to her heart over the years. For now, about all she can do for work is to continue to turn out her hand-painted bird houses which are for sale at Court St. Station at stall #9.

Friends are joining together to help raise money for Ripley's care and medications. Like, many, changes in Medicaid benefits have affected Ripley.

On Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Ripley will sell her collection of Coca Cola memorabilia in front of Carole and Mary's restaurant on Main St. in Bay St. Louis to help raise money as well. An account has also been set up at Hancock Bank under her name for donations. Other fundraising activities will be scheduled, said friend Sandy Shaver.

Three years ago, while working in the kitchen at the restaurant, Ripley could suddenly not catch her breath.

"I hadn't been feeling good, but pushed it aside," she said. "Then one day, I couldn't breathe."

At first doctors suspected pneumonia, but after a biopsy of the lung, she was diagnosed with idiopathic pulmonary fibrosis. The exact cause of the disease is unknown but suspected to be viral illness or environmental exposure.

Ripley spent some years working in factories when she was younger making fiber glass masks, gas masks and radio parts. Her doctors felt that the exposure to fiber glass, rubber dust and acetone in the manufacturing processes could be contributing fac-

"We use hair spray, and spray paint and breathe other fumes without thinking about it," said Ripley. "But we need to remember these things are bad for our health." Ripley was given three months to live. Her lungs would harden from the inside and shrivel, she was told. However, her doctor managed to get her enrolled in what was then an experimental treatment, interferon, now used to treat many conditions. Along with oxygen therapy the treatment greatly extended Ripley's life expectation. But it is still one day at a time. Now, Ripley says, she has good days and bad days. That she has learned: to accept. Being the strong woman that she is, what bothers her the most she says, is how she feels many people look at her now.

"People treat me differently," she said: "That is one of the hardest parts (of being sick)."

But she is still the same person she always was, and though she needs help a little more than she used to, she doesn't want people just to look at her and see a disease, someone to feel sorry for, she says. That is why for a while she refused to wear her oxygen tanks in public, she says.

Ripley is now a part of. an adult program which is the equivalent of the Make a Wish Foundation for adults: It is called the Dream Foundation. Ripley has been approved for a five day trip back to her home near Cape Cod and the Boston area. She hasn't been home in almost 20 years. She hopes to make the trip with McLaurin, and Shaver in the next two weeks, before it turns cold.

"I'm not so much going to see anyone as to just go back to the beach I remember as a kid and put my feet in the sand and smell the salt air," she said. "And say good-bye."

Bay & SSC to meet on gridiron; Sofianos & Lacoste claim honors

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II Staff Writer

Bay High Tigers and the St. Stanislaus Rocka-chaws are set to meet on the high grdiron Friday. school evening at Joe D. McCullough Stadium at 7 p.m. to renew their annual fall rivalry.

The series, one of the longest running on the Coast, dates back to 1948 when the first game was played with SSC posting a 45-0 win. That also happens to be the largest margin of victory for the Rocks over the Tigers.

The largest margin of victory for Bay High over SSC happened in 1986 when the Tigers steam-rolled the Rocks 52-0.

The smallest margin of victory came in 1973 when Bay High defeated SSC 7-6. SSC's David Depreo intercepted a Tiger pass and went 60 yards for the score late in the first half. The PAT kick missed leaving the score at 6-0.

Later in the second half of action, David Tillman intercepted a Rock-a-chaw aerial and returned it 10 yards for the score. Ben Piazza made the difference for Bay High when he converted on the PAT to make while assistants. Mark the final score 7-6.

SSC leads the overall series 20-17 including last year's win over the Tigers. What names will become linked to the series' legend and lore? Could it be the punishing linebacking corps from SSC - Mike Cure, Mike Deifik, Jordan Ellis, Lee

Will it be the quick strike offense of Bay High - Corbin Blaize, Steven Dauenhauer, Antonio Hawkins, Brad Ladner and Lorenzo Lewis?

Don't forget about SSC's Lance Cuevas, Josh Duplessis or Brennen Thomas. Or, furthermore, Bay High's Trevor Adam, ry! Kyle Moran and Kadeem Harrison.

Not only are players involved in the series' legend and lore, the coaching staffs of both schools have members who have seen the series up close.

On Bay High's staff, head coach Brennan Compretta played in the series during the early 1990s. Assistant coaches Jeremy Turcotte, Taylor LaFontaine and Dave Kenson also have experience in the series. Turcotte played in the mid-1990s for the Tigers while LaFontaine played for SSC and graduated in 2001. LaFontaine kicked a field goal in overtime that gave SSC a win during his sophomore season. Kenson is a former SSC head coach who was involved in the series for four seasons.

On the Rock-a-chaws' side, head coach Casey Wittmann is a former signal caller for the Rocks and played in the early 1980s Logan, Dave Boos, Bruce Morreale, Stace McRaney and Mike Proulx all have ties to the rivalry. Logan, Boos and Morreale all played for the Rocks in the late-1970s to mid-1980s while McRaney and Proulx both played for the Tigers in the early to mid-1980s.

All four teams were in action last week with SSC claiming the only area win. The Rocks (5-1) defeated the Pass Christian Pirates (0-7). 33-6 on a rain soaked field that featured a combined nine turnovers between the two teams.

The Hancock Hawks (0-7) continued to play with excellent effort against Northwest Rankin but fell 28-7. Bay High (4-3) D'Iberville 17-12 on the road. The Rocks and Pirates racked up all their points in the first half and swapped possessions all through the second half.

 SSC scored on their opening drive with a 29-yard pass from Lance Cuevas to Blanchard, Jr. (class of Stefan Sofianos. Cuevas 1942), J.E. Loiacano (class had three catches for 60 night but also threw four picks. Sofianos had five catches for 169 yards and a score in the game.

Pass Christian wasted no time getting on the board with an 89-yard kickoff return by Donovan Fairley to make the score 7-6.

CC bombs Jones 52-10

THE SEA COAST ECHO Defending state champ

Pearl River celebrated its 2004 Homecoming in grand style here Saturday, pounding arch-rival Jones with a 52-10 come-from-behind victory in MACJC South Division football action in Dobie Holden Stadium.

Fourth-maked PRCC trailed JCJC 10-2 in the second quarter before unleashing a scoring barrage with 42 unanswered points to bomb the Bobcats. A sparse crowd braved wet weather to watch the fourth-ranked and undefeated Wildcats improve to 6-0 overall and 4-0 in division play, while JCJC dropped to 4-2 and 2-

"Any time you can win the 'Cat Fight, it's good stuff," said third-year PRCC head coach Tim Hatten, who played in two of the annual battles as a Wildcat wide receiver in the mid-1980s. "It's real good stuff.

"We struggled early, but finally got settled down and played like we're capable of," he continued. "It was pretty obvious that Coach (Parker) Dykes (JCJC head coach) had his guys ready to play. We came out flat."

That was clearly evident River fumbled on the game's opening kickoff and Jones recovered at the 23. Four plays later, Michael Story's 26-yard field goal attempt blocked Levance Richmond of Lake Wales, Fla.

when Brett Hyatt hit Willie half. Fields with a 41-yard touchdown pass with 8:56 left in the first period. Story's extra point made it 7-0 JCJC.

Pearl River answered with a three-and-out, but punter Chris St. John of Oak Grove boomed a 55yarder — a career long — to pin the Bobcats at the seven. JCJC faced a fourth and 33 at the 17 five plays later, but Ben Beasley saw the snap for the punt sail over his head and the sophomore wisely punched it out the endzone for a two-point safety with 4:45 left in the period.

On Jones' next possession. Hyatt engineered a 13play drive from the Bobcat 12 to the Wildcat 12 only to see JCJC's 76-yard effort dissolve when Julian McGowan of Prentiss picked off his first of two passes on the afternoon at his own five. Larry Brackins of Dothan, Ala., a preseason All-American pick at wide receiver who also sees duty at safety, ended Jones' next possession with his first interception of the season and returned his pick 42 yards to the Bobcat 32. Four immediately when Pearl plays later, redshirt freshman quarterback Jimmy Oliver of East Marion threw incomplete on a fourth-andeight at the 30.

Jones answered it's defensive stand by driving to the Wildcat 15 in eight plays where Michael Story After PRCC punted it booted a 33-yard field goal back to the Bobcats, Jones for JCJC's final points of the

for the game's opening score 10-2 with 3:13 left in the John's PAT made it 31-10.

If. Pearl River tied it up on Brackins scored on a 52yard pass play from Oliver with 1:57 left in the half, then Oliver kept left on a two-point conversion run to Wildcats weren't finished.

After regaining possession four snaps later at the Bobcat 48 via Beasley's oneyard punt, it took only four plays to put PRCC up for good. Oliver kept for 16 on first down, then hit James Hollingsworth Hattiesburg High with a 16yard completion to the JCJC 20. Brandon Fountain of Moss Point caught the goahead TD pass, a 20-yarder, two plays later. St. John's PAT made it 17-10 with 11 seconds left on the halftime.

Pearl River blew them out in the second half. On the second play of the second half, McGowan picked off Hyatt at the JCJC 31 and returned it for his first collegiate touchdown, then Oliver hit Brackins for a two-point conversion to make it 24-10 will less than a minute gone in the third quarter.

The Wildcats' next possession lasted only one snap, as Thaddeus Gibbs picked off Oliver at midfield; but Story's 35-yard field goal attempt 10 snaps later was blocked by Sandy Ray Collins of West Marion.

It took PRCC only six plays to pad its lead with Oliver hitting Brackins with a 40-yard scoring pass with drove 59 yards in six plays rainy afternoon to make it 6:13 left in the third. St.

Bernard Smith of Lake Wales, Fla., capped an 80its ensuing possession when yard, 10 play drive with an eight-yard run at the 12:09 mark of the final quarter. Oliver tossed one pass, an incompletion, in the drive with Smith carrying twice make it 10-10. But the for 19 yards and Mike McClendon of Quitman six times for 65. St. John's PAT made it 38-10.

Ervin Jackson of Hancock County intercepted Hyatt at the Wildcat 20 on Jones' second play of its enusing possession and returned it to the 44.

A 15-yard personal foul penalty moved it back to the 29, but Oliver hit Hollingsworth with a 27yard completion three snaps later, followed by a 45yarder to Fountain. St. John's boot made it 45-10 with 10:27 left.

Jones' Tristan Jackson return on the ensuing kickoff and a 15-yard PRCC penalty set the Bobcats up at the Wildcat 49, but nine plays later, Hyatt's pass was intercepted by Levance Richmond of Lake Wales, Fla., in the end zone on a fourth-and-four from the six. McClendon raced 80 yards for the game's final touchdown on the next play with 6:37 left. St. John's conversion ended the scoring at 52-10.

"We're getting better, I think," Hatten said. "It was good to see that we were able to score 52 points in weather like this...some of our numbers were down a bit, but we made up in other areas."

Clint Black's latest album, Spend My Time, is just the latest chapter in his musically significant body of work. The youngest of four brothers and a selfdescribed country boy, Black was raised on the outskirts of Houston.

"We ran out of our neighborhood down to the bayou, hunting snakes and fishing with our hands," he says. "We were Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer." The family was also drawn to country music and Clint picked up both the harmonica and guitar as a teenager.

Before long he was performing solo on the club circuit, working his way into the music industry's attention. His 1989 RCA debut Killin' Time opened a decade of furious creativity and success, both for Black and the genre. At the time, Black's arrival was the most Mel Gibson, James Garner rapid ascension to stardom and Jodie Foster in the
